LETTER OF INVITATION

Dear Colleagues,

The management of Nigeria National Accreditation Service (NiNAS) is happy to announce a one-day Foundation Training and Sensitization Workshop for Conformity Assessment Bodies providing certification services in Nigeria. These include companies providing certification services to industries and the economic chain, Ministries, Departments and Agencies of Government providing certification services in whole or in part as their regulatory mandates.

The objective of this training includes:

- To introduce the fundamentals of ISO/IEC 17021, 17024, and 17065, accreditation standard for certification bodies, agencies, corporate entities and groups providing certification services in line with international best practice.
- To interact with the stakeholders in Inspection services community on NiNAS plans to begin accreditation of certification Bodies and how this will assist you in achieving your organizational or regulatory mandate.
- To educate the participants on the NiNAS accreditation process for certification bodies.

Find attached the aide memoire and application form for this training. You are kindly advised to read the aide memoire which contains all the information you need for this training.

We look forward to welcoming you at this event.

Best Regards,

Keren Gerald Esemonu (Mrs)
